Westfield Hires Community Development Director

Westfield, IN – Westfield Town Manager, Bruce A. Hauk, announced today the hiring of the new Community Development Director, Mr. Gregory J. Anderson, AICP. Today is Greg's first day with the Town of Westfield. "We are excited to have Greg on board here in Westfield," says Bruce A. Hauk. His skills and experience will be a tremendous asset for the entire community of Westfield," says Hauk.

Greg has held several managerial/supervisory roles within the development process before coming to Westfield, most recently, he had his own consulting firm specializing in real estate acquisition, land planning and custom homes in the suburbs surrounding Chicago, prior to his consultant work he worked for several mid-west national homebuilders concerning their land acquisition and government entitlements.

Greg's private sector career was preceded by work in the public sector for several Illinois municipalities within their Community Development Departments with responsibilities as the Director overseeing Building Inspections, Code Enforcement, Economic Development and Planning & Zoning.

He holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree of Design / Urban Planning from Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, IL. He is a member of the American Planning Association and the American Institute of Certified Planners (AICP). He holds the honor as a Lifetime Director / Past President for the Will-Grundy Counties Home Builders & Associates (WGCHBA). He also is a licensed real estate salesperson in Illinois.

As Westfield Community Development Director, Greg will oversee the Planning, Zoning, Building, and Code Enforcement Divisions. For additional information, please contact me at the above listed numbers.
